BioSpain, The showcase for Spanish Biotechnology

Since 2003, BIOSPAIN has become the leading platform for showcasing Spain's dynamic biotech industry and connecting it with the global innovation ecosystem.

The next edition will be held in Bilbao, at the Bilbao Exhibition Centre (BEC), in 2026, gathering thousands of delegates from across the world. BIOSPAIN has established itself as a respected international meeting point where companies, investors, clusters, and institutions build partnerships and explore new business opportunities.

BIOSPAIN 2026 combines a high-quality conference programme with one-to-one partnering, bringing together companies, investors, clusters and institutions to build collaborations and accelerate business opportunities. Sustainability is embedded across the event content, while Talent Day spotlights skills, careers and the people driving biotech growth. For sponsors, this creates a strong platform to position their brand at the heart of Europe's biotech ecosystem.

BIOSPAIN is the largest biotech event organized by a national bioindustry association in Europe, and one of the top international partnering platforms worldwide by number of one-to-one meetings and participating companies.

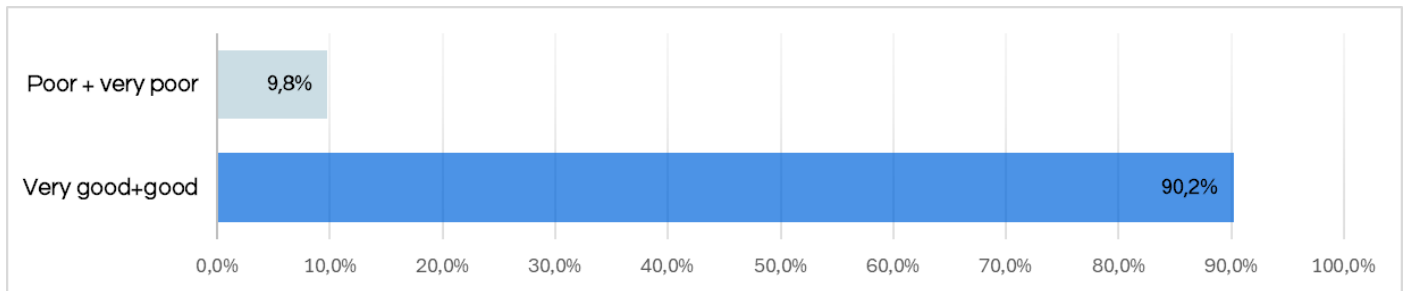

In its 23-year history, BIOSPAIN has established itself as a respected global meeting point for the biotech sector, attracting companies, investors, clusters, research institutions and international delegations. At the last edition, more than 2,400 delegates from 35 countries took part, with +400 participants coming from abroad.

The venue is the Bilbao Exhibition Centre, a modern site with excellent international connections and state-of-the-art facilities. Bilbao, the Basque Country's capital, sits within an innovation-driven region with a strong industrial tradition and a fast-growing biotech ecosystem, home to 97 biotech companies, representing 9.6% of Spain's total. The region is also a European reference hub for advanced therapies manufacturing, concentrating more than half of Spain's industrial biomanufacturing capacity.
